

Position Summary: Journalism/Media

“Academy News,” is Respect & Honor Academy’s leading news enterprise covering all events ranging from sporting events to community involvement. We are seeking editorial interns for a significant editorial support role within our company. Our prestigious, industry-leading media brand serves youth and high school sports in the entire DMV area. We are looking for highly motivated aspiring journalists, photographers, and videographers who have a deep passion and interest for sports and community service. No prior experience is necessary for this position. Interns will receive an unparalleled experience covering student athletes, our camp series, seminars, college tours and highly competitive sporting events. You will work in a fast-paced, deadline driven atmosphere governed by incredibly high standards. You will be immersed in our operations, consulted on key editorial decisions and expected to produce a variety of content weekly. You will be highly marketable upon completion of the internship. Located in Prince Georges County, MD., our brand has a proud legacy of producing top quality material. Our reporters cover events located throughout the Maryland and D.C. Metropolitan area. We advocate on behalf of student-athlete exposure and positive community news.
